

Name _____

March Madness Magic: The Thrills of College Basketball's Big Dance

Short Answer Key

1. Filling out tournament brackets adds an element of fun and competition for fans as they predict the outcomes of games.
2. "Cinderella" teams are lower-seeded or unranked squads that make unexpected and impressive runs in the tournament, capturing the hearts of fans.
3. The Final Four consists of the last four teams standing in the tournament, and it's important because they compete for a spot in the championship game.
4. The atmosphere during the championship game is electric, with fans on the edge of their seats, cheering loudly and passionately for their team.
5. The "One Shining Moment" montage is a highlight reel of the tournament's best moments, and it's emotional for fans because it celebrates the players and teams who gave their all.

