

Name _____

Marching Ants

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Teamwork helps both ants and people by making big tasks easier. When people work together, they can solve problems faster.
2. I had to stay organized when doing a school project. By planning and working step by step, I finished it on time.
3. Discipline is important because it helps people stay focused, follow rules, and reach their goals. Without discipline, things would be chaotic.
4. If the ants were not organized, they might get lost, struggle to find food, and not survive as a colony.
