Name _____

Building Character: Why Character Education Matters

Short Answer

1. Give an example of a character trait that character education seeks to nurture.

2. How does character education prepare students for facing challenges in life?

3. Explain the importance of empathy in character education.

4. What role does responsibility play in character education, and why is it important?

5. How can character education contribute to a more inclusive and respectful school environment?

© ReadingDuck.com