

Name _____

Building Character: Why Character Education Matters

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Describe a real-life situation where empathy and responsibility are essential character traits. How would character education help individuals navigate this situation effectively?
2. Share your personal thoughts on why character education is important in today's society. How do you think it can positively impact individuals and communities?
3. Imagine you are a teacher implementing character education in your classroom. What activities or lessons would you plan to teach your students about the value of honesty and integrity?
4. Discuss a character trait that you believe is particularly important for leadership. How can character education help develop this trait in students?

