

Name _____

The Metamorphosis of Max

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think Max felt when he found himself transformed into an action figure? What emotions do you think he experienced during this strange time?
2. Max's family showed great understanding and acceptance when they read his letter. What qualities of Max's family do you think enabled them to believe his incredible story and offer their support?
3. What do you think the story's message is about the importance of family and the value of communication and understanding?
4. How do you think Max's perspective on collecting and cataloging items changed after his transformation? What lessons do you think he learned from his experience?

