The Metamorphosis of Max

Short Answer Key

1. When Max touched the shoebox labeled "Childhood Toys," he found himself transformed into a giant, living action figure.
2. Max's family continued their daily routines as if nothing had happened, unaware of his transformation.
3. Luna, the family cat, helped Max return to his human form by knocking over Max's box, shattering it.
4. Max left a handwritten letter for his family to explain his experience as an action figure.
5. After his transformation, Max began to cherish the moments he shared with his family more than physical possessions, realizing the value of love and understanding.
