

Name _____

Max the Meadow Mouse Learns Respect

Open-Ended Questions Answer Key

1. One time, I didn't wear my helmet while riding my bike, and I fell and scraped my knee. After that, I realized how important it is to follow safety rules."
2. "It's important because they have more experience and know what's best to keep you safe and happy, just like Elder Owl cared about the animals in the meadow."
3. "Max probably felt proud and happy because he made up for his mistake and showed his friends he cared about them and their safety."
4. "I can listen to their advice, follow their rules, and thank them for helping me. I can also help them, like doing chores at home or being polite at school."

