

Name _____

The Marvelous Misadventures of Max Mildew

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What characterizes the town of Mundanityville in the story?
  - a) The town is known for its exciting and unpredictable events.
  - b) The town values predictability and conformity.
  - c) The town is constantly in chaos and disarray.
  - d) The town is home to a thriving circus.

2. How do the townspeople react when Max Mildew rides a unicycle and juggles flaming torches in the town square?
  - a) They join him in juggling torches.
  - b) They abandon their routines and express shock.
  - c) They applaud his performance and offer him a job in the circus.
  - d) They ignore him and continue their sidewalk sweeping.

3. What does Mayor Prudence demand of Max when he interrupts the synchronized sidewalk sweeping?
  - a) He demands that Max teach him how to juggle torches.
  - b) He insists that Max adhere to the town's schedule for juggling torches.
  - c) He encourages Max to continue his unicycle performance.
  - d) He invites Max to become the town's new mayor.

4. How do the townspeople of Mundanityville react to Max's peculiar escapades over time?
  - a) They continue to disapprove of his actions.
  - b) Some disapprove, while others secretly admire his audacious spirit.
  - c) They all enthusiastically join Max in his eccentric activities.
  - d) They become increasingly predictable and orderly.

5. What happens at the grand gala organized by Mayor Prudence, and how does it differ from previous galas?
  - a) It descends into chaos as guests abandon their formality and join Max in eccentric revelry.
  - b) It proceeds in a predictable and orderly fashion.
  - c) It features a circus performance by Max.
  - d) It is canceled due to Max's disruptions.

