

Name _____

Unveiling Cultural Representations in Media

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss how cultural stereotypes in media can have a negative impact on individuals and society, providing examples from the narrative.
2. Reflect on the role of activists and creators in addressing cultural stereotypes and the potential for positive change in media representation.
3. Why do you think it's important for viewers to be critical and aware of stereotypes in media, and how can this awareness lead to more responsible consumption of media content?
4. Imagine a world where media accurately represents diverse cultures. How might this benefit society as a whole, and what positive changes could it bring about in people's perceptions and attitudes?

