

Name _____

Media & Presidents

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How did Franklin D. Roosevelt use the media to connect with people?
 - a) By writing letters to every citizen
 - b) By appearing in movies
 - c) By sending messages through social media
 - d) By giving Fireside Chats on the radio

2. What is one way that media can help the president?
 - a) It can spread false information
 - b) It can explain their ideas to the public
 - c) It can replace the president's speeches
 - d) It can tell people how to vote

3. How has social media changed how people view the president?
 - a) It allows only newspapers to share news
 - b) It lets people hear news quickly and share their opinions
 - c) It makes it impossible for people to disagree
 - d) It stops the president from talking to citizens

4. What should people do when they see different opinions in the news?
 - a) Believe the first thing they read
 - b) Only listen to people who agree with them
 - c) Check different sources and think carefully
 - d) Stop reading the news altogether

5. Why is it important to understand how media presents the president?
 - a) It helps people make informed decisions
 - b) It makes voting unimportant
 - c) It allows only certain people to share news
 - d) It prevents people from having different opinions

