

Name _____

Media & Presidents

Short Answer Key

1. Newspapers could support or criticize presidents, influencing how people thought about them.
2. Roosevelt's Fireside Chats helped people feel connected to the president and understand his decisions.
3. Social media helps spread news quickly, but it can also spread false information.
4. News sources may have different opinions or focus on different facts.
5. People can check if the news comes from a trusted source and compare it to other reports.

