

Name _____

Media Watch

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. If people stay informed, they can make better choices about voting and government decisions.
2. People should check multiple sources and look for reliable news outlets that provide facts, not just opinions.
3. An example could be when the media reports on elections, major laws, or issues like civil rights movements.
4. By investigating government actions and sharing the truth, the media helps make sure leaders follow the rules and protect citizens' rights.

