

Name _____

Medieval Society: Nobility, Clergy, and Peasants

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who lived at the top of medieval society and were responsible for providing protection and governance?

- a) Peasants
- b) Clergy
- c) Nobility
- d) Monks

2. What was the primary role of knights in medieval society?

- a) Farming the land
- b) Providing spiritual guidance
- c) Protecting their lands through combat
- d) Transcribing manuscripts

3. What was the basis of the feudal system in medieval society?

- a) Loyalty and land ownership
- b) Monetary exchange
- c) Religious devotion
- d) Trade agreements

4. What were the responsibilities of peasant women in medieval society?

- a) Managing the household affairs
- b) Overseeing religious ceremonies
- c) Transcribing manuscripts
- d) Protecting the land

5. Who had significant influence over medieval life and was the religious and moral authority of the time?

- a) Knights
- b) Peasants
- c) The Church
- d) Monarchs

