

Name _____

Medieval Society: Nobility, Clergy, and Peasants

Short Answer

1. Describe the primary responsibilities of the nobility in medieval society.
2. Explain the role of the clergy in providing spiritual guidance and education during the Middle Ages.
3. How did the feudal system define the relationships and obligations between different classes in medieval society?
4. What were the roles of peasant women in medieval society, and why were they important to the community?
5. Why was the Church considered the religious and moral authority of medieval society?

