

Name _____

Metamorphosis of the Soul

Short Answer Key

1. The caterpillar's ultimate transformation in the poem is into a butterfly.
2. The chrysalis serves as a protective casing that enables the caterpillar to undergo its transformation into a butterfly.
3. The butterfly conveys the message of personal growth and transformation, symbolizing the idea that change and growth are part of life's journey.
4. The poem suggests that the caterpillar's struggle within the chrysalis is a necessary part of its transformation and growth.

