

Name _____

How Clouds Help Scientists Predict Weather

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What are clouds made of?
  - A. Dust and smoke
  - B. Fire and steam
  - C. Water droplets or ice
  - D. Sand and wind

2. What kind of cloud looks like cotton balls and means fair weather?
  - A. Cirrus
  - B. Stratus
  - C. Cumulonimbus
  - D. Cumulus

3. Which cloud is flat, gray, and may bring drizzle?
  - A. Stratus
  - B. Cirrus
  - C. Cumulus
  - D. Fog

4. What do cirrus clouds often tell scientists?
  - A. That a storm has passed
  - B. That snow or rain may come soon
  - C. That a tornado is forming
  - D. That it will be hot and sunny all day

5. What tool is NOT used by meteorologists?
  - A. Satellite
  - B. Thermometer
  - C. Radar
  - D. Microwave

