

Name _____

Prose Poem: The Midnight Conversations

Multiple Choice Questions

1. When do the midnight conversations described in the poem take place?
 - A. In the morning
 - B. During the day
 - C. Under the midnight sky
 - D. In brightly lit rooms

2. What is the main purpose of these midnight conversations?
 - A. To gossip about others
 - B. To share secrets and dreams
 - C. To argue and fight
 - D. To plan for the next day

3. What topics are discussed during the midnight conversations according to the poem?
 - A. Food and sports
 - B. Love, fears, and the future
 - C. Movies and music
 - D. Science and technology

4. How does the poem describe the night in relation to these conversations?
 - A. The night interrupts the conversations
 - B. The night becomes a canvas for the conversations
 - C. The night scares people away from talking
 - D. The night makes people forget their dreams

5. What is the significance of the midnight conversations, as mentioned in the poem?
 - A. They are meaningless and unimportant.
 - B. They connect friends and offer understanding and empathy.
 - C. They are a waste of time.
 - D. They are secret conversations.

