

Name _____

The Haunting on Midnight Highway

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The atmosphere inside the car was tense and filled with unease as the friends drove through the dark and stormy night on Midnight Highway. The rain and wind added to the sense of foreboding.
2. The friends chose to follow the spectral path to the abandoned house because they were desperate to find help and felt compelled by the ghostly figures outside the car. They believed that the spirits might offer some assistance.
3. The eerie whispers of the ghostly figures were chilling and haunting, adding to the sense of fear and unease among the friends. The whispers created a sense of mystery and anticipation.
4. The story conveys a sense of mystery and the unknown, suggesting that there are supernatural forces at play in the world. It explores themes of fear, desperation, and the consequences of venturing into the unknown.

