

Name _____

Life of a Mime Artist

Open-Ended Questions

1. If you were a mime artist, what type of story would you tell with your movements? Why?
2. How do you think the absence of words in a performance affects the audience's experience?
3. What qualities do you think are important to become a successful mime artist?
4. How would you compare mime artistry to other forms of performance like acting or dancing?

