

Name _____

Mind's Darkness

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What causes the narrator's personality to change?
 - a) He gets a new job.
 - b) He starts drinking too much.
 - c) He moves to a new city.
 - d) He adopts another cat.

2. Why does the narrator feel haunted by the second black cat?
 - a) It looks exactly like Pluto and follows him everywhere.
 - b) It talks to him in his sleep.
 - c) It disappears and reappears at random.
 - d) It refuses to eat.

3. What does the white mark on the second cat's chest seem to symbolize?
 - a) The narrator's love for animals.
 - b) A warning of punishment.
 - c) A magical spell.
 - d) A happy memory.

4. What makes the narrator's story an example of psychological horror?
 - a) It includes ghosts and monsters.
 - b) It is about a haunted house.
 - c) It is a story about an evil scientist.
 - d) The horror comes from the narrator's own mind.

5. What does the ending of the story suggest about guilt?
 - a) Guilt can be ignored.
 - b) Guilt has no real effect on people.
 - c) Guilt can take over someone's mind and lead to their downfall.
 - d) Guilt always makes people better.

