

Name _____

Mirror's Reflection

Short Answer

1. How does the poem describe the mirror's role in reflecting self-doubt and judgment?
2. What are some of the qualities that the poem suggests are more important than external appearance?
3. How does the poem encourage embracing one's quirks and flaws?
4. What do you think the poem means by "In your unique self, find your place"?
5. How can self-acceptance lead to greater happiness and well-being, as implied in the poem?

