

Name _____

Misunderstood Me

Short Answer

1. Describe how the speaker feels about being misunderstood in the poem.
2. What does the phrase "I wear my heart upon my sleeve" mean, and why is it significant in the poem?
3. What does the speaker find in solitude, and why is it described as a refuge?
4. What is the speaker's ultimate desire when it comes to being understood by others?
5. How does the speaker embrace their uniqueness in the poem?

