

Name _____

Misunderstood Me

Short Answer Key

1. The speaker feels frustrated about being misunderstood in the poem.
2. The phrase "I wear my heart upon my sleeve" means that the speaker shares their feelings openly, and it is significant because it highlights the speaker's vulnerability.
3. In solitude, the speaker finds solace, which means comfort and peace. It is described as a refuge because it provides a safe and peaceful place for the speaker's thoughts and emotions.
4. The speaker's ultimate desire is for someone to truly understand them, to see beyond the surface and comprehend their thoughts and feelings.
5. The speaker embraces their uniqueness by finding solace in solitude and by expressing themselves through the world of words.

