

Name _____

Mixed Emotions

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do the children feel at the beginning of the story?
 - a) Excited and energetic.
 - b) Bored and restless.
 - c) Scared and nervous.
 - d) Frustrated and angry.

2. Why do the children become afraid?
 - a) Their mother comes home early.
 - b) The Cat starts reading a scary book.
 - c) The Fish disappears from the story.
 - d) Thing 1 and Thing 2 create a huge mess.

3. What emotion leads the children to take action against the Cat?
 - a) Excitement.
 - b) Curiosity.
 - c) Frustration.
 - d) Happiness.

4. How does the Cat surprise the children at the end?
 - a) He uses a machine to clean up the mess.
 - b) He runs away without saying goodbye.
 - c) He brings more friends into the house.
 - d) He tells the children to clean up by themselves.

5. What lesson do the children learn through their changing emotions?
 - a) It is okay to make a mess as long as no one sees it.
 - b) Fun is always more important than responsibility.
 - c) It's important to take control when things get out of hand.
 - d) They should always listen to the Cat.

