

Name _____

Disconnect to Reconnect: Why Mobile Phones Don't Belong in Classrooms

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one significant distraction that mobile phones pose in the classroom?
 - A) Access to educational apps
 - B) Opportunities for social interaction
 - C) Constant notifications and updates
 - D) Improved focus on lessons

2. How can mobile phones contribute to academic dishonesty in the classroom?
 - A) By encouraging critical thinking skills
 - B) By providing quick access to test answers
 - C) By fostering problem-solving abilities
 - D) By promoting ethical behavior

3. What is one adverse effect of excessive mobile phone use mentioned in the passage?
 - A) Improved posture
 - B) Enhanced sleep patterns
 - C) Increased social interaction
 - D) Eye strain and disrupted sleep patterns

4. How can mobile phones contribute to social isolation in students?
 - A) By encouraging engagement with peers during breaks
 - B) By providing opportunities for meaningful relationships
 - C) By immersing students in their phones during group activities
 - D) By promoting communication skills

5. What is one challenge that teachers face when mobile phones are allowed in classrooms?
 - A) Improved classroom management
 - B) Enhanced monitoring of student engagement
 - C) Reduced disruption from phone usage
 - D) Difficulty in monitoring and participation tracking

