

Name _____

Money Matters

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why was the U.S. in debt after the American Revolution?
 - a) The U.S. borrowed money to pay for the war
 - b) The British refused to trade with them
 - c) The government spent too much on new buildings
 - d) The states refused to pay their soldiers

2. What was one reason Federalists supported a strong national government?
 - a) To create a new king for the country
 - b) To allow each state to make its own money
 - c) To collect taxes and pay off debts
 - d) To get rid of all taxes

3. What did the Anti-Federalists fear about a strong national government?
 - a) It would be too weak to make decisions
 - b) It would force people to serve in the military
 - c) It would take over all farms and businesses
 - d) It would have too much power and unfairly tax people

4. Why did the Anti-Federalists dislike the idea of a National Bank?
 - a) They thought it would help the British
 - b) They believed it would only help the wealthy
 - c) They wanted banks in every small town
 - d) They believed banks should be run by Britain

5. How was the debate between the Federalists and Anti-Federalists resolved?
 - a) The Federalists got everything they wanted
 - b) The U.S. created a National Bank, but with limits on government power
 - c) The government stopped collecting taxes
 - d) The Anti-Federalists took control of the country

