

Name _____

The Moon's Night

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Lena's relatability comes from her love for stargazing and her curiosity about the unknown, traits that many teenagers share. These qualities make her a character readers can root for and identify with, adding to the story's appeal.
2. Stargazing symbolizes hope, wonder, and the potential for unexpected connections. In Lena's life, it represents the idea that love and adventure can come from the most unexpected places.
3. The author, in the style of Alyssa Cole, creates anticipation and excitement through vivid descriptions, Lena's emotional journey, and the mysterious nature of the love letter. The author builds tension and curiosity, keeping readers engaged.
4. Predictions may vary, but readers might expect Lena to uncover the identity of the mysterious person and embark on a romantic adventure filled with surprises, leading to a heartwarming conclusion.

