

Name _____

The Moorland Setting of Wuthering Heights

Open-Ended Questions Answer Key

1. The moors reflect emotional states and symbolize freedom and passion. Examples include storms during emotional peaks and calm weather representing peace.
2. The moors highlight the unique bond between Heathcliff and Catherine, showcasing their connection to both each other and the wildness of nature.
3. A city setting would eliminate the freedom and emotional reflection offered by the moors, altering the story's tone and relationships.
4. Brontë used the moors to enhance the story's themes of passion, freedom, and emotional conflict.

