

Name _____

Mosquitoes and Their Relationships: Friends or Foes?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What kind of relationship is formed when mosquitoes drink blood?
 - a. Mutualism
 - b. Commensalism
 - c. Parasitism
 - d. Cooperation

2. How do mosquitoes help plants?
 - a. By eating harmful pests
 - b. By pollinating flowers
 - c. By drinking water
 - d. By spreading seeds

3. What is commensalism?
 - a. A relationship where both species benefit
 - b. A relationship where one species benefits, and the other is unaffected
 - c. A relationship where one species is harmed
 - d. A relationship where both species are harmed

4. What do mosquito larvae gain from living in standing water?
 - a. Protection and a place to grow
 - b. Food from fish
 - c. Better flight skills
 - d. A place to store nectar

5. Which animals rely on mosquitoes as part of their diet?
 - a. Lions and tigers
 - b. Eagles and sharks
 - c. Cats and dogs
 - d. Frogs and dragonflies

