

Name _____

How Leopards Move

Short Answer Key

1. Leopards run in short bursts to catch prey by surprise.
2. Their tails help with balance while running and climbing.
3. To keep their prey safe from other predators.
4. Leopards are good hunters because of their speed, stealth, and climbing ability.
5. They stay low to the ground and move quietly.

