

Name _____

Capturing the Action: Tips for Photographing Fast-Moving Subjects

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one of the most critical camera settings for photographing fast-moving subjects?
 - a) ISO
 - b) Aperture
 - c) Shutter speed
 - d) White balance

2. Which camera mode allows you to manually control the shutter speed while the camera adjusts other settings?
 - a) Manual mode
 - b) Aperture priority mode
 - c) Shutter priority mode
 - d) Program mode

3. What type of lens is ideal for sports and wildlife photography?
 - a) Wide-angle lens
 - b) Prime lens
 - c) Telephoto lens
 - d) Macro lens

4. In sports photography, what should you focus on to capture compelling images?
 - a) The background scenery
 - b) The spectators in the stands
 - c) The expressions and emotions of the athletes
 - d) The equipment used by the athletes

5. What is the purpose of using continuous shooting mode (burst mode) when photographing fast-moving subjects?
 - a) To save battery power
 - b) To capture a rapid sequence of images with one press of the shutter button
 - c) To slow down the shutter speed
 - d) To increase the depth of field

