

Name _____

Museum Hero

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Stanley decide to disguise himself as a painting?
 - a) He wanted to play a trick on the museum director.
 - b) He thought it would be fun to hang on the wall.
 - c) He wanted to help catch the art thieves.
 - d) He was forced to do it by his parents.

2. How did Stanley feel while waiting for the thieves?
 - a) Bored and sleepy
 - b) Excited and laughing
 - c) Angry and impatient
 - d) Nervous but determined

3. What did Stanley do when the thieves tried to steal him?
 - a) He jumped out and shouted.
 - b) He let them take him away.
 - c) He called the police on his phone.
 - d) He ran to find the museum director.

4. What does Stanley's adventure teach about bravery?
 - a) Only strong people can be brave.
 - b) Bravery means acting even when you're scared.
 - c) It's not important to help others.
 - d) Being brave means never feeling afraid.

5. How did Stanley's family react when he got home?
 - a) They ignored him.
 - b) They were upset he took a risk.
 - c) They cheered and celebrated his bravery.
 - d) They told him he should have stayed home.

