

Name _____

Museum Hero

Short Answer Key

1. The museum was worried because criminals had been stealing valuable paintings.
2. Stanley disguised himself as a painting so he could catch the thieves in the act.
3. He stayed calm, waited for the right moment, and stopped one of the thieves himself.
4. He learned that taking responsibility means helping even when it's scary.
5. The museum director trusted Stanley because he was clever, determined, and willing to help.

