

Name _____

The Magical World of Music

Short Answer Key

1. The clarinet produces sweet and mellow tones, and playing it feels like having a conversation with the instrument.
2. The saxophone's smooth and sultry notes can tug at your heartstrings, and playing it feels like pouring your emotions into the music.
3. Being in a school band involves teamwork and camaraderie with fellow bandmates to create harmonious melodies.
4. Rewards include experiencing the joy of hitting the right notes, the thrill of performing on stage, and the pride of being part of something bigger than oneself.
5. The author suggests that the journey may start with challenges but can lead to the unlocking of the magic of music with practice and dedication.

