The Magical Melodies of the Wishful Music Box

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The music box likely granted wishes by infusing the melodies it played with magical energy. When someone made a wish, the music box's tunes carried that wish to reality. The melodies acted as a bridge between the wisher's desire and the magic needed to fulfill it.
2. Answers may vary, but a student might wish to bring happiness to their family, help those in need, or explore far-off lands. They could use the music box's power to make the world a better place and spread joy to others.
3. Over time, Lily learned that the true magic of the music box was in sharing its joy with others. She realized that happiness is multiplied when it's shared, and she wanted to make a positive impact on the lives of those around her.
4. If I found the music box after it floated away from Lily, I might wish for a grand adventure filled with exciting discoveries and the opportunity to learn about different cultures and places. The music box's magic would be a gateway to a world of exploration and wonder.
