

Name _____

Prose Poem: The Music Within

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Explain the significance of music being described as a language that transcends words in the poem. How does this relate to its impact on people?
2. Share a personal experience or example that illustrates how music has helped you make sense of a confusing or difficult situation, as mentioned in the poem.
3. Reflect on the idea of music being a confidant in the poem. How can music serve as a confidant, and why might people turn to it in times of need?
4. How does the poem convey the idea that music can be a universal and timeless form of expression that connects people across different experiences and generations?

