

Name _____

Musical Letters

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does Chicka Chicka Boom Boom help children learn the alphabet?
  - a) It turns letters into a song-like adventure.
  - b) It teaches numbers instead of letters.
  - c) It does not include the full alphabet.
  - d) It is a very long and complicated story.

2. What phrase is repeated throughout the book?
  - a) "Climb the tree, little letters."
  - b) "Chicka Chicka Boom Boom! Will there be enough room?"
  - c) "The letters fell and stayed down."
  - d) "Coconut trees are fun to climb."

3. How does the book use rhyme to help young readers?
  - a) It makes words harder to pronounce.
  - b) It only teaches uppercase letters.
  - c) It stops children from learning new words.
  - d) It helps children recognize sounds and patterns in words.

4. Why do teachers and parents often read Chicka Chicka Boom Boom in a sing-song way?
  - a) It makes the story boring.
  - b) It confuses young readers.
  - c) It helps children memorize and enjoy the words.
  - d) It makes the story shorter.

5. How does repetition help early readers?
  - a) It makes words harder to remember.
  - b) It allows children to recognize and predict sounds and patterns.
  - c) It teaches only a few words.
  - d) It makes reading more difficult.

