

Name _____

Unlocking the Secrets of NGO Governance and Structures

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main characteristic of membership-based NGOs?
 - a) They have a board of directors.
 - b) They rely on volunteers for leadership.
 - c) They have a decentralized decision-making process.
 - d) They have a membership base involved in decision-making.

2. Which role is responsible for the day-to-day operations and implementation of an NGO's vision?
 - a) Board of directors
 - b) Membership base
 - c) Executive director or CEO
 - d) Volunteers

3. What is a key feature of project-based NGO structures?
 - a) Minimal hierarchy
 - b) Community-elected leaders
 - c) Non-hierarchical decision-making
 - d) Focus on grassroots-level activities

4. What do federations and networks of NGOs aim to achieve?
 - a) Decentralized decision-making
 - b) Collaboration and resource sharing
 - c) Non-hierarchical models
 - d) Project-based structures

5. In what type of organization is power distributed equally among members or participants?
 - a) Flat organizational structure
 - b) Executive leadership model
 - c) Community-based organization (CBO)
 - d) Board of directors

