

Name _____

Nanny in Disguise

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Jerry disguise himself as a woman named Geraldine to become a nanny?

- a) He had always wanted to be a nanny.
- b) The Richington family preferred a female nanny.
- c) He wanted to play a prank on the Richingtons.
- d) He was a scientist and needed to conduct experiments.

2. What were the Richington children, Prudence and Percival, known for?

- a) Their love for rubber ducks.
- b) Their obsession with robots.
- c) Their brilliant minds and quirky behavior.
- d) Their interest in dance and music.

3. How did Prudence's experiments in the basement affect the household?

- a) They resulted in colorful explosions.
- b) They caused the basement to flood.
- c) They created delicious food.
- d) They led to quiet and peaceful moments.

4. What was Mr. Richington's unusual obsession?

- a) Collecting rubber ducks.
- b) Raising parrots.
- c) Playing the piano.
- d) Collecting antique books.

5. What happened when Jerry's true identity was accidentally revealed to the Richingtons?

- a) They fired him immediately.
- b) They laughed it off and decided to keep him as their nanny.
- c) They reported him to the authorities.
- d) They asked him to leave the house.

