

Name _____

Nathan Fielder: The Comedy Architect

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think Nathan Fielder's background in business and his ability to see humor in everyday situations influenced his unique style of comedy and approach to creating the show "Nathan for You"?
2. In what ways did Nathan Fielder challenge societal norms through his comedy, and why do you think he chose to do so?
3. Nathan Fielder's pranks and hoaxes were often compared to performance art. Can you provide an example of one of his elaborate pranks and explain why it could be considered a form of performance art?
4. If you were to describe Nathan Fielder's comedy style to someone who has never heard of him, what key elements or characteristics would you highlight, and why do you find them significant?

