

Name _____

Native American Tribes in the French and Indian War

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What role did Native American tribes play in the French and Indian War?
  - a) They remained neutral throughout the conflict.
  - b) They primarily acted as traders.
  - c) They formed alliances with European powers and provided military support.
  - d) They were not involved in the war.

2. Why did Native American tribes align themselves with European powers in the war?
  - a) They sought to gain independence from both sides.
  - b) It was purely a matter of chance.
  - c) They based their alliances on strategic interests and historical relationships.
  - d) They were forced into alliances against their will.

3. How did Native American tribes contribute to the fighting during the French and Indian War?
  - a) They only provided logistical support.
  - b) They controlled trade routes and resources.
  - c) They conducted naval battles.
  - d) They had no significant role in the conflict.

4. What tactics did Native American tribes use during the war?
  - a) They primarily engaged in large-scale battles.
  - b) They employed ambushes and guerrilla warfare.
  - c) They focused on diplomacy and negotiations.
  - d) They used only defensive strategies.

5. What was the consequence of Native American involvement in the French and Indian War?
  - a) It had no impact on the outcome of the conflict.
  - b) It shaped the strategies and outcomes of battles.
  - c) Native tribes remained neutral throughout the war.
  - d) The war left no legacy of tension between tribes and European powers.

