

Name _____

Native Choices

Short Answer Key

1. They did not want to be involved in the war and hoped to protect their land and people.
2. He led Creek warriors to fight for the Union and helped protect his people from the Confederates.
3. Many lost their homes, suffered from hunger, and had to fight battles in their own lands.
4. The U.S. government saw them as enemies for supporting the Confederacy, even though they had no choice.
5. Indian Territory was heavily damaged, and many tribes lost land and were forced to sign new treaties.

