

Name _____

Native Resistance

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was one way Native American tribes adapted to European colonization?
 - a) They traded with settlers for tools and weapons.
 - b) They stopped farming and only hunted for food.
 - c) They built large cities like the Europeans.
 - d) They left North America to move to Europe.

2. What was the Iroquois Confederacy known for?
 - a) Fighting against all European settlers.
 - b) Writing the first laws in America.
 - c) Building large castles for protection.
 - d) Trading and forming alliances to protect their land.

3. Who was King Philip, and what did he do?
 - a) A British general who helped settlers move west.
 - b) A Native American leader who fought against the English settlers.
 - c) A Spanish explorer who discovered America.
 - d) A French leader who made peace with Native Americans.

4. What was one result of Native American resistance to colonization?
 - a) They kept all of their land and power.
 - b) They stopped fighting after one battle.
 - c) Some tribes moved west, while others continued fighting for their rights.
 - d) They won and took over all European settlements.

5. What is one way Native American traditions still exist today?
 - a) Their languages and cultures have completely disappeared.
 - b) Their history and traditions are still taught and celebrated.
 - c) Native Americans became part of European culture and lost their identity.
 - d) They no longer live in North America.

