

Name _____

Native Resistance

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would try to make peace first, but if settlers kept taking land, I would fight back to protect my people.
2. Some tribes adapted to survive and trade, while others resisted because they wanted to keep their land and way of life.
3. We can learn that it is important to stand up for our rights and traditions while also finding ways to adapt to change.
4. Native American cultures have influenced farming, place names, storytelling, and even government ideas.

