

Name _____

Nature's Mirror

Short Answer Key

1. The speaker describes the relationship as a reflection of their inner world in the beauty and elements of nature.
2. The speaker finds their hopes, dreams, and emotions reflected in nature as they walk through the garden.
3. The speaker associates joy, peace, and a sense of belonging with nature in the poem.
4. Nature provides comfort and understanding by reflecting the speaker's inner world and offering a sense of connection and solace.
5. The poem conveys the message that nature has the power to reflect, heal, and provide emotional connection in our lives.

