

Name _____

The Beauty of Nature's Wonders

Short Answer Key

1. The poem describes the beauty of nature as a masterpiece with the colors of life and the brushstrokes of time.
2. Teenagers are referred to as explorers of the natural world because they seek hidden treasures and moments of serenity in nature.
3. Teenagers find solace and connection in nature, which can reduce stress, improve mood, and provide a sense of calm. It's significant because it helps them escape from the pressures of modern life.
4. The poem mentions the responsibility to protect and preserve nature, emphasizing our duty to care for the environment and maintain its delicate balance.
5. Answers may vary. Possible examples could include a stunning sunset, a serene forest, or a powerful waterfall. The inspiration could be derived from their beauty, the sense of tranquility they bring, or their role in the ecosystem.

