

Name _____

Navigating Challenges: Common Problems in Growing Biennial Plants

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is a common problem encountered when growing biennial plants related to seedling emergence?

- A) Excessive foliage growth
- B) Slow or uneven germination
- C) Premature flowering
- D) Root rot

2. What is bolting, a common issue with biennial plants?

- A) Delayed seedling emergence
- B) Premature flowering
- C) Excessive root growth
- D) Leaf yellowing

3. What is a potential consequence of winter injury in biennial plants?

- A) Plant death or dieback
- B) Enhanced growth and vigor
- C) Increased pest infestation
- D) Improved flowering and fruit set

4. What environmental condition can contribute to root rot in biennial plants?

- A) Excessive sunlight
- B) High humidity
- C) Poor drainage and waterlogging
- D) Low soil fertility

5. Which of the following is NOT a common pest or disease problem encountered when growing biennial plants?

- A) Aphids
- B) Powdery mildew
- C) Root rot
- D) Spider mites

