

Name _____

Navigating Challenges and Ethical Dilemmas: The World of NGOs

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one of the significant challenges faced by NGOs related to funding?
 - a) Excessive resources and donations
 - b) Predictable and stable funding
 - c) Funding uncertainty
 - d) Independent funding sources

2. Why is maintaining independence crucial for NGOs?
 - a) It ensures they prioritize immediate relief over long-term solutions.
 - b) It allows them to work closely with governments.
 - c) It helps them uphold their mission and values.
 - d) It makes them less accountable to donors.

3. What is a common ethical dilemma NGOs may face in funding decisions?
 - a) Having too many funding options to choose from
 - b) Accepting funding that conflicts with their values
 - c) Receiving funding from government agencies only
 - d) Declining all funding opportunities

4. Why is cultural sensitivity important for NGOs working in diverse communities?
 - a) It helps them impose their own values on others.
 - b) It fosters respectful and effective collaboration.
 - c) It allows them to prioritize their own culture.
 - d) It ensures they stay isolated from the community.

5. What is a security risk that NGOs operating in conflict zones may face?
 - a) High funding levels
 - b) Political stability
 - c) Lack of engagement with local communities
 - d) Risks to the safety of staff and volunteers

