Navigating Challenges and Ethical Dilemmas: The World of NGOs

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary based on personal opinions. Students should provide reasons to support their choice of the most significant challenge faced by NGOs.
2. Students should describe a process that involves evaluating the ethical dilemma, considering potential consequences, involving stakeholders, and making a well-informed decision. They can also discuss the importance of maintaining the organization's values and mission.
3. Students should research and identify a specific example of an NGO that faced an ethical funding dilemma. They should describe the dilemma, the decision made by the NGO, and the impact on their work and reputation.
4. Strategies for ensuring the security and safety of staff and volunteers in conflict zones or politically unstable areas may include risk assessments, security training, communication protocols, and close coordination with local authorities and organizations. Students can discuss specific measures and their effectiveness in different contexts.
