

Name _____

Navigating Directions: When in Doubt, Ask!

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is it important to ask questions when you're not sure about directions?

- a) Asking questions is a sign of weakness.
- b) It helps you learn and understand better.
- c) It annoys people around you.
- d) Directions are always perfect, so questions are unnecessary.

2. How can you make your questions more effective?

- a) Use polite language and be specific.
- b) Avoid asking questions altogether.
- c) Interrupt others while they are speaking.
- d) Ask the same question repeatedly.

3. What is one benefit of collaboration when asking questions?

- a) It makes you look smarter.
- b) It can lead to better solutions.
- c) It slows down the process.
- d) Collaboration is not helpful when asking questions.

4. Why is listening actively important when asking questions?

- a) It helps you avoid asking questions.
- b) It shows you're not interested.
- c) It ensures you absorb the information.
- d) It is not essential when asking questions.

5. When should you ask a follow-up question?

- a) Never, it's impolite.
- b) Only when you're absolutely sure about the answer.
- c) When the first answer doesn't clarify your doubt.
- d) Always, even if you understand the answer.

